U. S. MISSION IS HOPEFUL SLAVS WILL YET UNITE

(Associated Press by U. S. Naval Communication Service)

A PACIFIC PORT, Aug. 5.—(Special Telegrams) Russia, where the results of the Russian revolution were evident before they left Petrograd, the members of the American mission to Russia were accompanied by special envoys sent to the United States by the new government of the Russian democracy, have out statements for publication yesterday. All agree that the outlook for Russia is brightening, but that the whole cause of democracy and world freedom depends greatly upon the determination shown by the United States to bring Prussian autocracy to its knees.

"The American mission has returned from Russia firmly convinced that the United States, in espousing the cause of the Russian people, has aligned itself on the side of democracy in a war that is nothing more nor less than democracy against autocracy," said Elmer Root, who headed the mission into the Valley.

"America is entering into a conflict in which there will be deaths for many Americans, widowed homes, sufferings and needs for sacrifices. The day may come when America will almost despair, but even should that day dawn, in the end America will rise as a greater nation, purged in freedom and remade in the spirit of our fathers."

"America is competent to accomplish the divine mission to which we as a nation have been called, to carry liberty and justice to all the world. No time to argue."

"Do not waste time now in argument as to why we are in this war, but simply realize that the time has come when American liberty, American justice, American independence and American freedom is at stake."

Equally emphatic in his declaration that America today faces a struggle in which her future is at stake is Charles Edward Russell, the leading Socialist journalist, who was a member of the mission.

Democracy in Balance

"We should cheer up in regard to the Russian situation, however black it may appear," he said, "because if democracy wins in this war the Russian people will emerge as their own rulers. If democracy should lose, then the flag is endangered. Today, democracy hangs by a thread."

"The existence of democracy depends upon this Union and the determination of America to win in the war upon which we have involved ourselves against Prussian autocracy."

Commenting upon the Russian revolution and its far-reaching effects, he said: "What the American women have been trying for years to get, the women of Russia obtained in a minute. That is, the right to vote. Where Labor Belongs"

James Duncan, another of the members of the American mission, urges America to remember that "this is not the time for squabbling over incidents. The place of the American workingman today is back of the president and back of the government."

Basil Soldaten Kouff, one of the Russian envoys who accompanied the American commissioners back from Petrograd, issued a statement urging the people of the United States to show a confidence in the future of the New Russia. The Republicans of the newest democracy need time and the patience of their friends, he said.

Board of Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry

Rule IV, Division of Forestry.

The Board of Commissioners of Agriculture and Forestry hereby makes the following rule and regulation for the protection of bird, animal and vegetable life on certain islands of the Territory of Hawaii.

Section 1. It is unlawful for any person to hunt, trap, capture, willfully disturb or kill any bird or any animal of any kind whatever, or to take, injure or destroy the eggs of any bird, or to cut, chop, burn, injure, or destroy any vegetation on the islands of Moku Manu, Moku Lua, Popoia, Manana, Kaohikaipu, Mokuhoonihiki and Kapapa, except as authorized by written permit from the Superintendent of Forestry.

Section 2. The going on or being upon said islands with intent to destroy, molest, disturb, or injure any bird, animal or vegetable life thereon without a written permit from the Superintendent of Forestry is forbidden and declared to constitute trespass punishable by fine.

Section 3. Any person violating the above rule shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500), as provided by Section 529, Revised Laws of Hawaii of 1915.

This rule shall take effect upon its approval by the Governor of Hawaii. Approved this 28th day of July, 1917.

LUCIUS E. PINKHAM, Governor of Hawaii.

Honolulu, Territory of Hawaii.

ROUND-UP OF SLACKERS ON TOMORROW

Every Military Eligible Who Has Not Registered Will Be Arrested and May Land in Prison if He Has No Legitimate Excuse

"Every man coming within the specified age limit, 21 to 31 years, who has not registered after tomorrow for military service, is going to be arrested," U. S. Marshal Jerome J. Smiddy.

One more day of grace remains for those who have not registered for military service.

After tomorrow those who come within the age limit, 21 to 31 years, and who have not enrolled, will have to answer to U. S. Marshal J. J. Smiddy. What will be done with those whose excuses are not legitimate will be determined by U. S. Attorney S. C. Huber. Imprisonment for as much as a year may be the punishment for slackers.

With 11 special deputies at work, and with the aid of sheriffs and deputy sheriffs, Marshal Smiddy is ready to begin the big "roundup." The marshal is taking an optimistic view of the situation, and will give no estimate as to the number of "slackers" he believes will fall into the federal net.

Marshal Smiddy is eagerly awaiting the publication of the names of those who have registered by the central registration board. Since registration day he has advised more than 20 men, who were doubtful of their correct ages, to register at the sheriff's office and let the problem of their ages be worked out by the board later on. But until the list of those enrolled is published, he says he will have no way of checking up to find out if the doubtful ones have cast their lot with the rest.

Over Sunday two men employed on steamers now in port informed the marshal of receipt by them of notification that they have been drafted on the mainland. Both wanted to immediately take a physical examination and go before the proper board in Honolulu and file their claims for exemption.

As there is no exemption board in Honolulu at present, the marshal informed the seamen to put in their claims for exemption as soon as they arrive in San Francisco. This is but one of the several problems that Marshal Smiddy has been called upon to work out since registration day.

"Every man who has not registered after tomorrow is going to be arrested," declared the marshal today. "Those coming within the age limit have had sufficient warning, and know that it is their duty to register whether they will claim exemption or not."

With the publication of the names of those enrolled, the marshal believes he will be aided in checking up on those who have not registered, as U. S. Attorney Huber already has announced that, in his opinion, it is the duty of every person, when the knowledge comes to him, to report any failure to register.

Just how the cases of "slackers" will be handled in the local federal court has not been determined by the U. S. attorney's office. Persons convicted of "slacking" may have their cases taken before the grand jury, or maybe a committee following a hearing before the United States commissioner.

MOVIES OF ISLANDS TO BE SHOWN TOMORROW

Moving pictures of island scenes are to be given Tuesday evening, August 7, on the tennis courts of the Plesantoun hotel by Eddie Fernandez. Among the pictures is one of the Shriners' Hukilau at Waimanalo which shows the old time method of fishing with a draw net with the Shriners as star actors. The net is shown loaded into small boats and then it is thrown out in a semi-circle with both ends on the beach.

During the session of the recent legislature the representatives called upon Queen Liliuokalani to pay their respects and this picture shows scenes about Washington Palace, the home of the queen, with the queen sitting on the land.

Another picture is that of the leper settlement on Molokai and should prove very interesting to those who have never been to the place.

FREE FOOD ECONOMY DEMONSTRATION IS BEING HELD TODAY

Demonstrations of the making of breads, following out recipes now in use in England and other countries, will feature the first three of the series of free lectures to the women of Honolulu under auspices of the women's committee of the territorial food commission. The first lecture was to be given at the Y. W. C. A. this afternoon, beginning at 2:45 o'clock. After today they will be held every Monday and Thursday. Mrs. James Russell, manager of the Y. W. C. A. cafeteria, is delivering the lectures.

4381 JAPANESE REGISTER HERE, CARDS REVEAL

Of Total Number. However, Only 196 Citizens: 63 Enrolled Since Tuesday

"If the 4381 Japanese men between the ages of 21 and 31 who registered on July 31 in this county, only 196 are citizens and the remainder are classified as aliens, according to records which have been prepared in Sheriff Charles H. Rose's office. Since registration day 63 men have registered at the police station. They are largely Filipino laborers. Among them are men who never heard that they had to register until after July 31 because they were a long way out in the country."

The last work of registering those who failed, for one reason or another, to enroll on July 31, is going on at the sheriff's office today. By tomorrow the work of checking up the tickets and the books with the city records to see if every man reported at the prescribed time will be begun.

The central registration board reported today that the lists of those who registered last Tuesday will be ready for publication in the newspapers probably next Saturday. No definite information has been received regarding the organization of exemption boards in the various counties.

HILO ASSISTANT P. M. IS INVOLVED IN $6000 LOSS

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

HILO, Aug. 3.—Another chapter to the famous six thousand dollar postoffice robbery in connection with the local affairs has been added. It appears that after matters had progressed well along in the way of an investigation, the government saw fit to hold Assistant Postmaster Ludloff and Postal Clerk Edward Desha, both of the local postoffice, responsible for the loss of the sum of money, and accordingly came a demand on these two officials, each to pay the sum of three thousand dollars, squaring up the loss.

They referred the matter to their bondsmen, who in turn took the matter up with their attorney, with the result that a fight will ensue in case the government decides to carry out the order for collection.

The local office was entirely exonerated at the time of the investigation. Postmaster Corbett getting a clean bill from the department, and it is only due to irregularities in the net work of red tape in connection with the proper procedure to follow, which has in anyway whatsoever, placed his assistant and Mr. Desha in the least responsible.

Mr. Desha has resigned his position as clerk to accept another with the Hilo Iron Works, and will enter upon his new duties at the expiration of the time limit of his resignation with the postoffice department.

LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR AND MILLINERY AT JEFFS WONDERFUL SALE

Very rarely have the ladies of Honolulu had such an opportunity to purchase beautiful clothes and hats at such extraordinary low prices as is offered them by the sale now being held at the store of Jeffs' Fashion Co. Reductions, some to one-half the original price, have been made on every garment and hat in the store. Silk street dresses, white lingerie dresses, evening dresses, separate skirts, waists, hats. In fact every article in the store has been specially priced for this sale, and every article is of the Jeffs' high standard.—Adv.

MANILA HUMORIST IS RETURNING TO STATES

Clarence Coleman, recently a member of the staff of the Manila Times, is the city today on his way back to the mainland. Coleman is the author of a humorous column which appears daily in the Times under the heading "Bedtime Tales." He is going back to the mainland for the first time in six years.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

Washington, D. C., July 12, 1917. The Act of Congress approved March 3, 1916, authorizes the Secretary of the Treasury to reimburse the contributors to the opening and dedication of Bishop street adjoining the former Federal building site bounded by Merchant, King and Bishop streets, Honolulu, Hawaii. Notice is hereby given that the collector of customs has been designated as the fiscal agent to "reimburse them" (said contributors), "taking receipt in each case, the reimbursement to be the amount contributed without interest, and the receipt obtained by the fiscal agent shall be considered as evidence of the reimbursement, and the persons so reimbursed shall have no further claim. No one of the original contributors shall be entitled to reimbursement unless the claim is filed with the agent within one year after the last time the matter referred to is advertised." For further information apply to the collector of customs, Honolulu, Hawaii.
